TOTAL TAX LEVY.

Taxes in Tolsa this year will be lower than last year. The state tax is 2 mills, county 4.7 mills, city 13.2 mills, and scheoks 12.2 mills, making a total levy of 32.1 mills, as compared with 38.9 mills last year.

department approximately $23,000. The fire department, which has no revenue and employes more men than the police department, gets only $31.-000.

The engineer department was trimmed to $14,000, but this amount was raised afterward to $12,000 after Mayor Simmons had pointed out the necessity of such a move.

The street department asked for $71,000 and got $49,000. This will make it almost impossible to sprinkle and clean the streets to any degree of efficiency during the coming fiscal year. year.

The library, park and cometery estimates were not changed by the excise board. The sinking fund was reduced about $1,560.

The other layer in fixed at 15.2 mills.

The city levy is fixed at 13.2 mills, as compared with 15.3 mills last year. Following is the report of the excise board, showing the amounts asked for by the city and the amounts allowed by the board.

Cooling Winds From Mississippi Valely Moving Fastward Prom-

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—Cooling sinds from the Musissippi valley were moving eastward today, promising to sweep away completely the heat wave that has been scorehing the middle west for weeks. The weather bureau forecast lower temperature in the middle plains states within 24 to 48 hours and in the lower Ohio valley and upper lake region within 36 to 48 hours. At the same time an area of high pressure over New England is high pressure over New England is sending down fresh northcast winds to cool the Atlantic coast districts north of the Carolinas.

Democrats Decide to Rock Alon Without Help of Other Party Leaders.

Washington, Aug. 10.—Their offer of a compromise legislative program which might lead to an early adjournment of congress, rejected by the Republicans, Democratic senate leaders decided tonight to drive along without Republican co-operation in an effort to dispose of pending legislation by September 1.

Republican leaders who had given the Democrate hope that their adjournment proposal might be accepted were unable to control the party conference which took up the matter today for ratification.

Progressive Republicans, led by Senators Borah, Norris and La Follette, refused to be bound by any program which would prevent action on the corrupt practices, widows pension, olivit war veterans' retirement and immigration bills.

Beats Flynn and Stearns for Right to Run for Congress-Will Fight McKeown.

Special to The World.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Aug. 10.—According to the official tabulation of the election returns made at Okhahoma City Monday James E. Gresham of Wewoka is the nominee of the Republican party for congress of the Fourth district. While only about to the polls, the vote on congressment was Gresham, 2,780; Flynn, 2,354; Stearns, 2,030. Gresham brought out an unusually strong vote in Hughes and Coal counties which were embraced in the old central district where he was formerly assistant Urited States attorney.

A peculiar reature of this campaign arose in the fact that James Dennis Plynn, who was the Republican nomince two years ago, received a large vote frem persons who thought they were voting for Dennis T. Flynn, who represented old Okhahoma in congress several years age.

The contest for William H. Murray's place in constress now lies he tween Thomas D. McKeown and James E. Gresham and will be watched with considerable interest by the voters of the Fourth district.

N EW YORK, Aug. 10.—President Wilson will be called upon to take a hand in the settlement of the differences between the four railroad brotherhoods and their employers, unless an apparent deadlock in the negotiations which developed today can be broken, it was indicated here tought by representatives of both factions.

After it had heard the contentions of the workers and later those of the railroad managers, the United States board of mediation and conciliation was undecided tonight as to when it would meet again with representatives of either side. Martin A. Knapp, one of the federal mediators, when asked whether ther had been any chage in the situation since the board began it work, replied:

"There is a deadlock on the face of it. Whether we can change it lies in the bosom of the future."

Mr. Knapp said the board had not been in communication with President Wilson since it arrived here. When asked, however, if "conditions already had come to the point where an appeal would be made to the president", Mr. Knapp said he could not discuss the matter. He added that the board would continue its efforts to adjust the differences.
